

Prof Anton Muscatelli

Principal and Vice-Chancellor
University of Glasgow

Prof Anton Muscatelli is the Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Glasgow. He has held various posts in academia including the Daniel Jack Professorship of Economics at the University of Glasgow.

He has been the Chair of Universities' Scotland Research and Commercialisation Committee, member of the Scottish Funding Council's Research and Knowledge Transfer Committee and Knowledge Transfer Innovation Group, and as part of this led the SFC's Economic Development Action Group. He is also a member of UUK's Research Policy and Funding and management Policy Committees. He was Convener of Universities Scotland, and Vice-President of Universities UK.

He has made a number of contributions to his own discipline and the wider Social Sciences. He has been a member of various eminent Societies viz. Council of the Royal Economic Society, Royal Society of Edinburgh, Research Grants Board of the ESRC and an Academician in the Learned Societies of the Social Sciences. He has been a special adviser on monetary policy to the House of Commons Treasury Select Committee. He has served on various Panels such as Economic Advisors of the Secretary of State for Scotland and has acted as consultant to the European Commission, the World Bank etc. He has held visiting appointments in numerous overseas HE institutions.