

Mr Arbind Modi

Consultant

Planning Commission, Government of India

Mr Arbind Modi is currently a Consultant with the Planning Commission, Government of India. Prior to this he has worked at various eminent positions with the Ministry of Finance and Income Tax Department, Government of India. He was Joint Secretary (Tax Policy & Legislation) with Department of Revenue with the Ministry of Finance. Mr Modi has Extensive senior-level experience in analyzing and formulating tax policy, drafting tax legislation designing and computerizing tax administration and enforcement of tax laws. He has been Commissioner of Income tax, Joint Director (Organization and Management Services) of Income tax and also Joint Commissioner of Income tax (Systems) with the Income Tax Department.

He has also been Faculty member of the Program on Investment Appraisal and Management conducted by the Harvard Institute for International Development in July-August, 1999. He was also a Scholar of the Joint Japan / World Bank Graduate Fellowship Program

He completed his MA from University of Delhi and has a Master in Public Administration from John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. He also has a Certificate in International Tax Program from the Harvard Law School.