

Dr Kimberley Matheson

Vice-President (Research and International)

Carleton University

Dr Kimberley Matheson was appointed Vice-President (Research and International) in November, 2009. Prior to this she was the Acting Vice-President (Research and International) at Carleton University for two years, and as Chair of the Department of Psychology, she presided over the largest academic unit at the University.

She is a highly accomplished researcher and graduate supervisor, and is widely published in the areas of Social and Health Psychology. She is one of the few researchers to have been funded by all three major funding agencies: Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC), Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council (NSERC), and the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR).

She has served on University Senate, the Senate Financial Review Committee, and was a member of the University Task Force on Planning and Priorities. She is currently a member of the Advisory Board for the Social Interactions, Identity, and Well-being Panel of the Canadian Institutes for Advanced Research, and is on the Scientific Board of the Institute of Mental Health Research at the Royal Ottawa Hospital.

She received her PhD in 1988 from the University of Waterloo and joined the Department of Psychology at Carleton University in 1990 as a SSHRC Canada Research Fellow and is a Carleton alumna.
