

Prof M.K. Sridhar

Member-Secretary

Karnataka State Innovation Council

Government of Karnataka

Prof Sridhar is Member-Secretary & Executive Director of Karnataka Knowledge Commission (Government of Karnataka) from December, 2008 till date. He is also Member-Secretary at the Karnataka State Innovation Council, Government of Karnataka. He has served as 'Reader' and 'Professor' at Canara Bank School of Management Studies previously.

He has been involved in various roles in research projects like the "Human resources in call centre industry—An exploration of potential and challenges" sponsored by NASSCOM, "Exploration of strategy to convert personalized mode travelers into BMTC commuters in the city of Bangalore", "Study of Interaction between Technical Institutions and Small and Medium Enterprises in Science and Technology Sector" among others. He has been the Project Leader and Course Coordinator of Management Development Programme in a residential mode conducted for Department of Public Instruction, Govt. of Karnataka during February -August, 2007.

Prof Sridhar has been conferred Karnataka Rajyotsava Award by Government of Karnataka (2010) and Kempegowda award by Bangalore City Corporation (2011) for his contribution to the field of education.